SUBJECT: Letter of Recommendation for Supplier of the Year Award | West Best Foods, Inc

Dear WRMSDC Nomination Review Committee:

It is with great enthusiasm that MGM Resorts International nominate West Best Foods, Inc., a gem in the culinary landscape and a testament to the entrepreneurial spirit of the Campisi family, for the esteemed Western Regional Minority Supplier Development Council (WRMSDC) Supplier of the Year Class 2 Award. This nomination reflects the company's unwavering pursuit of excellence, its significant contributions to community welfare, and its influential presence in Southern Nevada's food industry.

Guided by the visionary Campisi family, West Best Foods, Inc. stands out for its innovative blend of Mexican and Italian culinary traditions, creating a unique and high-quality product range that meets the diverse needs of a broad clientele, including major corporate partners like MGM Resorts International. This long-standing alliance underscores the company's dedication to consistency, quality, and customer satisfaction, making them a standout supplier for MGM Resorts International.

With the wisdom of three generations, the Campisi family has embedded a culture of sharp business acumen, continuous innovation, and unwavering commitment to excellence within the company. West Best Foods, Inc delivers quality food products throughout several MGM Resorts Properties. West Best Foods, Inc is committed to excellence and constantly strives to deliver the best quality product while meeting the timelines and expectations of the customer.

In response to the adversity posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Campisi family and West Best Foods, Inc. exemplified true community spirit by offering their premium food products at wholesale prices to the public, providing essential support during those critical times.

Given their exemplary service, deep community engagement, and relentless dedication to upholding the highest standards of quality and innovation, MGM Resorts International wholeheartedly endorse West Best Foods, Inc., under the Campisi family's leadership, as the most deserving candidate for the Supplier of the Year Award in the Class 2 category.

Sincerely,
